Review Floor Plan Based on Feedback from November 3, 2025 Meeting

Bob Soukup discussed the changes made to the floor plan following the feedback from the Nov. 3rd meeting.

Review Cost Estimates

Tobin Buchanan from Northland Group and John Weiser from Hausmann Construction went through details on cost estimates of various parts of construction and bond amounts from 20 million to 35 million and what tax impact stakeholders could generally expect based on their residential or Ag Land property.

Small Group Discussions

Committee members spent about 30 minutes discussing in small groups the latest plan and then shared out their likes and dislikes. Members then completed a survey to indicate their perception on the public's tolerance for various bond amounts. A 20 and 25 million amount was viewed as favorably with 30 million plus generally seen as unlikely to be supported by a majority of stakeholders. The committee is still considering a February mail in election vs. a May primary election. CWP architects will go back to drawing board and produce a couple floor plans with a scope in the range of 25-30 million.
